SCHOOL RESEARCH TEST OF IBM ELECTRIC TYPEWRITERS

TEACHER'S BRIEF ON MAKING

EVALUATION, PROGRESS AND ACHIEVEMENT REPORTS

TYPEWRITING GRADING PLAN-

The A-B-C-Plan is to be used, as described and demonstrated by Dr. John L. Rowe, at the Teachers Conference, Columbia University, New York City, August 3-4, 1950. A complete description of this plan appears in the UBEA Forum, Vol. III, No. 2, November, 1948.

1-INITIAL EVALUATION REPORT-

Check this report periodically during the first 16 clock-hour period of the 1st Semester, by writing the dates of your observations opposite the factors justifying the rating and grading, shown at the top of each column. Thus this report will become an authentic record, in chronological order, of the improvement and progress made by each student for the first 16 clock-hour period. At the end of this 1st Testing Period, enter the Student's Final Grade in the space provided, and mail the report to the--

590 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N. Y.
Attention: Mr. H. W. Miller, Jr., Sales Manager
ET Division.

This report is to be discontinued after the first 16 clock-hour period in each semester.

2-HABIT-FORMING PROGRESS REPORT-
3-PROGRESS AND ACHIEVEMENT IN TYPEWRITING TECHNIQUE REPORT-

Check these two reports for each student at the end of each 16 clock-hour Testing Period, during each Semester, by writing the dates of your observations opposite the factors justifying the rating and grading shown at the top of each column.

Thus each of these reports will become an authentic record, in chronological order, of the improvement, progress and achievement made by each student for each semester.

At the end of each semester, enter the Student's Final Grade in the space provided, and mail the report to the IBM Corporation, New York, N. Y.
